

The Board of Trustees of the Eugenio Maria de Hostos Charter School is pleased to introduce Magaly Rosario as the school's new Executive Director.

Magaly Rosario has dedicated her time and passion to working with youth and families for over 20 years. She has a Bachelor's degree in Education from the Turabo University in Puerto Rico and a Master Degree in Business and Administration from the Rochester Institute of Technology. Her career started in 1998 as an Elementary Teacher in Puerto Rico. She later moved back to upstate New York where she taught middle school and high school Spanish at the Mount Morris Central School and the Dansville Central School District. Ms. Rosario held a position as Spanish Adjunct Professor with the Genesee Community College and most recently served as a Program Manager for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Rochester. She has an active role in the community by participating in several community organizations.

She is excited and honored to be joining the Eugenio Maria de Hostos Charter School family as the Executive Director and looks forward to working with our incredible school community.
